FORCED TO LEAVE SPENCER.

FORCED TO LEAVE SPENCER.

Siar on Ministry by Traveling "Preacher" Rescuted by Citizens.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Spencer, N. C., March 28.—In asserting that all Christian ministers are "fakes, preaching for money" a foreigner, traveling under the name of Rev. Smith was hushed up in short order by a lending citizen of Spencer while preaching on the streets here late this afternoon. Surrounded by a crowd of railroad men on the street corner he was promptly called down when he made the statement reflecting on the ministry. This aroused animosity out the part of his hearers, and the rebuke was administered by the Calef of the Fire Department, who deliberately informed the me-called preacher that he would "mash" his face if he continued to reflect upon the ministers of the community, and that he would whip aim if he did not leave Spencer at once. He algo tendered the stranger street car fare with which to make his way from town. Instead of walting for the arrival of a car the "preacher" promptly made his way out of Spencer, taking a course towards Greensboro. In the course of conversation he admitted that he is a tramp, that he shurpens razors for a living, and to be a free thinker.
